Beautiful Dorset CALENDAR 2019

BEAUTIFUL DORSET

Perhaps they are only two words, but surely no two words were ever more perfectly suited to their task of conveying the magnificence, majesty and breathtaking splendour of our own dear county: Beautiful Dorset!

As I write this short but important Foreword to the DHRA's Beautiful Dorset 2019 Calendar, my heart is full. Being President [FOR LIFE] of the Association I was so instrumental in founding much early in the century is an onerous, sometimes exhausting but always truly rewarding position. The late Mr Threadbone used often to compliment me on my ability to get into interesting and challenging positions - positions to which he himself often failed to accede - but no matter, in his absence and with the steadfast help of former Spanish boy scout Enrique, I now feel truly fulfilled: not an opening unexplored nor an opportunity squandered.

In short, it gives me great pleasure. I am also pleased also to be able to take this opportunity to pass on, from a stock of wisdom long in assembly and rich in content, the inspirational bon mot pour notre jour for which I know you all wait eagerly each December. It comes this year from the Bedside Book of Martha Threadbone (1886-1944) and was penned in times of great national crisis and uncertainty, when the threat of the Nazi jackboot was upon us and flour was 16 shillings an ounce if you could get it. "Sprinkle softly, for you sprinkle my scones", she wrote - a phrase as relevant today as the day it was on the day it was conjured. Think on it, as she did, and remain steadfast in the hope that, in our own uncertain DREXIT-dominated times, Mrs Might (Temporary DHRS DREXIT negotiator) can steer the great ship of state safely into Weymouth harbour.

And remember too that life is, as the somewhat sentimental Italian film of the same name opined, beautiful; as are we all and as is the county of our birth and nurturing. Beautiful Dorset indeed!

Mrs Amanda J Threadbone
