Every penny hurts

THREADBONE^{extra} ONLINE

Thank you for your recent order.

As you will no doubt understand, Christmas is one of our busiest periods and it is not always easy to access and carry all of the stock demanded by our customers. In certain instances, therefore, it is necessary to substitute a different product for the one originally ordered and we hope customers will bear with us as we try to do the best we can to serve the needs of all of our customers and fulfil orders as fairly and as best we can. In the unlikely event that you are disappointed by our choices on your behalf, please contact customer support online or by telephone between 9am and 4pm after 14th January 2020. Please be aware you may be placed in a very long queue.

With best wishes and Christmas greetings
